The opportunity to master Latvian and get acquainted with the history of Latvian culture in the Club of conversational Latvian and intercultural integration

Having the purpose of drawing people closer and integrate citizens of other countries with permanent residence in Latvia into Latvian cultural environment the Club of conversational Latvian and intercultural integration will be opened to function in the period from January 21 till June 30, 2015.

Subjects of the third countries and permanent alien residents are kindly invited to join the club where they will be able to master Latvian as well as to get acquainted with the culture of the country. The club sessions will take place in Riga in the building of NGO (42 Laimdotas street – entrance from Ieriķu street) and in Daugavpils in the building of “Erfolg” Society (44 Cietokšņa street)

24 classes in non-formal and friendly atmosphere will be held once a week. The classes will be conducted by highly-experienced professional teaching staff. The classes are free of charge.

In the course of the club sessions the participants will be able to discuss various problems important for Latvia and dispute the essential values of the country using interactive teaching methods. It will definitely contribute to the development of Latvian speech habits, as well as to acquiring definite knowledge and understanding of Latvian history, the country’s national traditions. It will also help the participants to achieve the comprehension of the traditions and cultural values of other nations. Several events of interest like attending museums or a trip to Sigulda are also included into the programme.
